Table 2.2-4 ARARs 2014-06-30.xlsx

Kristine and Lori,

I took a look at this spreadsheet and would like you both to review it before I send it to DEQ. The old table (first tab) is nice in that it color codes the various categories of ARARs and TBCs. The updated version has separate tabs for action specific, chemical specific etc. ARARs, but it's not clear which ones are TBCs, unless it's where they use the word "potentially?" in the Applicability/Appropriateness column (that heading should be changed!). And DEQ will want to know this.

Hi Kristine.

This email provides you my contact information and the revised ARAR table per your requested revisions.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

I have a status report for Section 10: We're still planning on providing that to you by end of day

Regards,

Scott
